

WCC Board of Directors, 2020-2021

Chair

Sarah Brady

saritabrady@aol.com

Sarah Brady is proud mother to Aiden (2nd grader at Westbrook and WCC alum), Sean (Kindergartner at Westbrook and WCC alum) and Fiona (3-year-old in the Panda class), and wife of Dan Brady. She has a dual Master's degree in Journalism and Latin American Studies from the University of Texas, is a former NPR journalist and Peace Corps Bolivia Volunteer. She currently owns her own interior design company and is working on a house remodel. Sarah grew up in Hampton Roads, Virginia and most recently lived in San Francisco. Moving to Bethesda has been an experience in coming home and realizing some things in life come full circle! Serving as the WCC Board Chair is a true pleasure for Sarah. She has come to love the staff, school, and community that WCC brings together through its loving and inclusive environment.

Vice Chair

Mary Beth Malcarney

marybeth905@gmail.com

Mary-Beth has served on the WCC board for the past five years in various capacities, including fundraising and personnel, and is glad to be a part of the board this year as Vice Chair. She has a son in the Pandas classroom this year, and two older daughters who have already graduated from the WCC program (and are growing up way too fast!). Mary-Beth has spent her career in public health, working and teaching on issues related to public health law and policy.

Treasurer

Brynn McNeil

Brynn.parker@gmail.com

Brynn has been a member of WCC's board for the last three years and has two children attend WCC. Brynn is an Assurance Partner in Cherry Bekaert's Washington, D.C., practice. Brynn has been with the firm for 15 years, initially joining the firm as an intern. Brynn provides audit and attest services to professional services companies, government contractors, not-for-profit organizations and employee benefit plans. As a member of the firm's Professional Services and Government Contracting industry groups, she works with clients to ensure appropriate contract revenue recognition policies, indirect rate reporting and general adherence to the Federal Acquisition Regulations. Brynn has significant experience in understanding the key intricacies of working with government contractors, and helping clients work through complex business transactions. She has an in-depth understanding of the Uniform Grant Guidance, as several of her non-for-profit organizations receive federal funding. Brynn also has significant experience in working with defined contribution plans, defined benefit plans and ESOPS.

Secretary

Rynnie Cotter

rynniecotter@gmail.com

Rynnie is pleased to serve her first term on the WCC Board of Directors as Secretary. Her daughter started attending WCC last year and is now in the Panda classroom. Rynnie works for a digital fitness company, Sworkit, where she leads the Sworkit Youth Initiative. Rynnie is also a sustaining member of the Junior League of Washington. She is a graduate of West Virginia University, married to Scott, and lives close enough to WCC to enjoy walking to get her daughter at the end of the school day.

Ex-Officio Chair

Lindsay Thompson

Email: lindsayallaire@gmail.com

Lindsay has served as WCC's Board Chair for the past two years. Her oldest son, Sawyer, now a first grader, started at WCC when he was two. Her son Reid is currently in the Dragonfly class. Lindsay is a partner at a boutique law firm in DC that focuses on commercial disputes. She is grateful for the community and lasting friendships she and her sons have found at WCC. She loves her family, her country and now more than ever, her coffee.
